We understand your needs.

Finding a home

We, at Executive Homes, understand what it is like to move country and home and know how important it is to get it right. We can be your trusted partner, whether you are new to Singapore or already a long term resident looking to move somewhere new.

Executive Homes delivers a top class service that is precisely tailored to your priorities. As well as helping you find the right property, we can advise you how to tackle the many elements that relocating involves: from obtaining a driving license, finding a good doctor and choosing the right school, to hiring a domestic helper, decorating your new home or simply finding your way around. Our long-term experience in Singapore means we have extensive contacts with local companies and can make things happen fast. We are happy to put our collective knowledge to work for you – just ask!

Commercial real estate

Starting a new business in another country can be a daunting process. Having a trusted partner with in-depth knowledge in that country, whose experience you can rely on, can make all the difference.

We, at Executive Homes, have extensive real estate experience in Singapore and understand the playing field like no other. We have assisted many companies across various industries to establish themselves here, priding ourselves on listening to our clients so that we fully understand their priorities. We can help you find the right location, ensuring that your operating costs remain as low as possible and allowing you to focus on increasing your productivity. How? By putting our extensive network of banks, insurance companies, law firms, headhunters and foreign chambers of commerce – to name a few – to work for you. Once you have found the right premises, we will take care of your lease and all related administration, so that you can concentrate on your new venture. You can rely on us when setting up in Singapore.
